CHCSS00074 Child Protection Skill Set

Course Description

This skills set reflects the skills requirements for the protection of children in a variety of roles in the community sector. Work may involve working directly or indirectly with children and providing support to children, families or communities.

Entry Requirements

This skill set has been endorsed by industry as suitable for individuals who:

- Hold a qualification at Certificate III level or higher in community services or health related fields or
- Have skills equivalent to the qualification requirement validated through a recognition of prior learning process.

Students complete an English skills self-assessment before they start their course. In addition, if evidence of insufficient literacy/ numeracy ability to undertake the course is evident throughout the enrolment process, the Institute may request the student to undertake an LLN diagnostic test and/or refer the student to a specialist LLN support agency.

Course delivery

The qualification is delivered Online over a maximum of 3 months or via RPL. Intakes are rolling.

Mode of Study

Online and RPL (with gap training if required). Students are advised of the training and/or assessment requirements by their trainer/assessor.

Work Placement

The student will be required to complete a minimum of 120 hours of practical placement in a child protection service that offers the full range of services required to complete your study. It is ultimately the student's obligation to find practical placement in their field of study. Most students will already be working in the industry, however if you are not working and experiencing difficulty, the Institute can assist. Call us to discuss.

Course Credit

Recognition of Prior learning (RPL) is "the acknowledgement of the skills and knowledge" that you have already gained through previous work, studies, and life experiences that relate to this qualification. If you are granted recognition in a unit/s of competency, you do not have to re-study that unit. If you think you may be eligible to apply for RPL because of your previous work, study and life experiences, please contact the Institute to access your RPL kit.

Credit Transfer

If you have completed any units from the skill set previously you will be eligible for credit on provision of a verified Qualification/Record of Results and/or Statement of Attainment.
