CHC43015 Certificate IV in Ageing Support

Course Description

This qualification reflects the role of support workers who complete specialised tasks and functions in aged services; either in residential, home or community based environments. Workers will take responsibility for their own outputs within defined organisation guidelines and maintain quality service delivery through the development, facilitation and review of individualised service planning and delivery.

Workers may be required to demonstrate leadership and have limited responsibility for the organisation and the quantity and quality of outputs of others within limited parameters.

Entry Requirements

There are no formal pre-requisites for entry into the course, however students must have access to an aged care, home and community, disability or community service organisation that offers the full range of services required to complete their course.

- Students must also be able to:
  - Provide a National Police Check
  - Provide a Working with Children Check (only if required by the workplace)
  - Provide a Yellow Card (Queensland) or equivalent in your State (only if required by the workplace)

Students complete an English skills self-assessment before they start their course. In addition, if evidence of insufficient literacy/numeracy ability to undertake the course is evident throughout the enrolment process, the Institute may request the student to undertake an LLN diagnostic test and/or refer the student to a specialist LLN support agency.

Course Delivery

The qualification is delivered Online over a maximum of 12 months. Intakes are rolling.

Mode of Delivery

Online and RPL (with gap training if required). Students are advised of the training and assessment requirements by their trainer/assessor prior to commencement.

Work Placement

The student will be required to complete a minimum of 120 hours of direct support work in an aged care, home and community, disability or community service organisation that offers the full range of services required to complete their course. It is ultimately the student's obligation to find practical placement in their field of study. Most students will already be working in the industry, however if you are not working and experiencing difficulty, the Institute can assist. Call us to discuss.

Recognition of Prior Learning

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is "the acknowledgement of the skills and knowledge" that you have already gained through previous work, studies, and life experiences that relate to this qualification. If you are granted recognition in a unit/s of competency, you do not have to re-study that unit. If you think you may be eligible to apply for RPL because of your previous work, study and life experiences, please contact the Institute to access your RPL kit.
